

Volunteer in the Wilson Learning Commons!

Please consider helping us this year in the Wilson Learning Commons. If you're interested, here is the link to sign up:

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/60b044baca82ea1fc1-media>

OR you can contact Diana Muzzo (dmuzzo70@gmail.com) by Friday, September 21.

What do Parent Volunteers do in the Learning Commons?

Parent volunteers are critical to keeping things running smoothly in the Wilson Learning Commons during the Media Special. Volunteers check out books to the kids, help students find books, check in and reshelve the books that are returned, make sure shelves are properly ordered, and a variety of other fun projects.

When are Parent Volunteers needed?

Volunteers staff the Learning Commons every day of the school week (typically for K through 3rd only). We have both morning and afternoon shifts.

How does scheduling work?

Sign up via the Sign-Up Genius link to let us know you are interested. We'll then send you a link to a form that will allow you to choose what days/shifts you'd like to volunteer and how often. Once we know who can help and when, we'll give you the schedule for the entire year.

Will I receive training?

Absolutely. We'll have a few training sessions in October to show you how the bookshelves are organized, how to check out books on the computer, and everything else you'll need to know.

Thank you in advance for your interest!

Sincerely,
Celeste Hopkins, Media Specialist
Diana Muzzo, Media Volunteer Coordinator